

RICK SCOTT
GOVERNOR

AMERICAN INDIAN DAY

WHEREAS, American Indians hold a special place in the history of the United States of American and the state of Florida in particular; and

WHEREAS, American Indians throughout the state and the United States have contributed to the past development and well-being of our society; and

WHEREAS, many tribes remain on reservations or tribal lands within their old homelands and where they retain many of their traditional values and culture; and

WHEREAS, American Indian day honors all the American Indians and Native Americans who served, fought for, and worked to make the United States of America what it is today; and

WHEREAS, thousands of American Indians are residents of the great state of Florida

NOW THEREFORE I Rick Scott, Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby extend greetings and best wishes to all observing September 26, 2014 as American Indian Day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed at Tallahassee, the Capital, this 25th day of September, in the year two thousand fourteen.

Governor